Subject: Doubt

Good morning, I would like to ask a question about this verse.

Proverbs 25:23

The north wind drives away rain, and a backbiting tongue, the angry face.

The first part of this proverb became clear with the book of Job reference (Job 37:22), "The good weather comes from the north."

Now what about the second part? The backbiting tongue scares off an angry face?

Thank you very much in advance.

Why the Study?

- Every word of God counts (Pr 30:4-6).
- Truth needs each word (John 10:35).
- Life needs every word (Luke 4:4).
- Study needs every word (I Cor 2:13).
- God gave Proverbs for wisdom (Pr 1:1-4).
- You should read your daily Proverb.
- You should read the Bible carefully.
- The KJV is a valuable treasure. Love it.
- They do more than “update language.”
- God confounds the “wise” (I Cor 1:19-20).

We do not care how the Tower of Babel looked!

We care about what happened there!

God confounded man's language so they could not understand each other!

“Go to, let us go down,
and there confound their language, that they may
not understand one
another’s speech.”

Genesis 11:7

“Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the LORD did there
confound the language of
all the earth.”

Genesis 11:9

He Is the Author of Confusion

- Not in His assemblies, but with rebels (I Cor 14:33).
- He destroys the wisdom of the “wise” (I Cor 1:19).
- He brings to nothing their understanding (I Cor 1:19).
- He asks where have the wise gone (I Cor 1:20).
- He includes skeptics like textual critics (I Cor 1:20).
- He has made their wisdom foolishness (I Cor 1:20).
- He takes them in their own craftiness (I Cor 3:19).
- He knows that their thoughts are vain (I Cor 3:20).
- It is a marvelous work to blind fools (Is 29:9-16).
- A pastor’s job includes mocking error (I Kgs 18:27).

God is.

God has spoken.

The Bible is His words.

Our Assumptions

- The King James Version is God's word and words.
- We prove it by faith, fruit, facts, fools ... and wisdom!
- Every word is necessary for full truth and wisdom.
- Satan's tool is still the same: "Yea, hath God said?"
- Here is a sample of many changes in God's words.
- They cannot have the same originals, or can they?
- Can they read ... read Hebrew ... or interpret idioms?
- Perilous times need a weak Bible – they have many.
- Holy laughter at man's folly is good and worshipful!
- We know ... only by grace ... do we know anything!

Brooke Foss Westcott

Fenton John Anthony Hort

Committee on Bible Translation, July 2010, after finishing the revised NIV (2011).

From NKJV to The Message and Beyond

- The NKJV claims to be the King James. But it is not!
- The NKJV is a copyrighted Thomas Nelson money tree.
- The NKJV claims only “updated language.”
- The NKJV claims an end to “thee and thou.”
- How does it handle Solomon’s “dark sayings”?
- Real translators will be able to interpret them.
- Other Bibles, like the NIV and Message, are worse.
- Paraphrases are merely novels about the Bible.
- The NIV is a “dynamic equivalent” novel.
- We ignore frauds like the “Cotton Patch Version.”

This should be fun,
because proverbs are “dark sayings.”

It is hard enough to translate plain words, but
what about tricky sayings?

“To understand a proverb,
and the interpretation; the
words of the wise, and
their dark sayings.”

Proverbs 1:6

“These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall ... shew you plainly of the Father.”

John 16:25

“His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest
thou plainly, and speakest
no proverb.”

John 16:29
