

Lord, Behold!

J. Matthew Jones, 1963 -

Tune: Solid Rock

William B. Bradbury, 1816-1868

Lord, thou art God which hea - ven made, with stars al - so the sky ar - rayed;
E - qual with God, yet made a man, by vir - gin birth Thy life be - gan.
Tempt - ed in all, Thou won each fight, res - ist - ing sin with all Thy might.
Thou healed the sick and raised the dead; from a few loaves the crowds were fed.
The Fa - ther gave Thee souls to save; each one for whom Thy life You gave.

Earth, seas and all that in them is, and by Thy pow'r all things con - sist.
Our hands did touch, our eyes did see, the Word made flesh; great mys - ter - y!
Thy Fa - ther's bus - 'ness Thy sole aim, the word of truth Thou did pro - claim.
Thou calmed the storm, and walked the sea, and caused a man born blind to see.
Not one shall per - ish from Thy hand; right - 'ous be - fore Thy throne they stand.

Be - hold, oh Je - sus Christ our king, good, ve - ry good, was E - ter - nal God, the son of man, be - hold the wis - dom Though man did not Thy mes - sage heed, the Fa - ther loved Thy Such works were met with rage and scorn, and for Thy head a Be - hold the child - ren God gave Thee, to sing Thy praise e - ev - 'ry thing. Good, ve - ry good, was ev - 'ry thing.

of Thy plan! Be - hold the wis - dom of Thy plan!
ev - 'ry deed. The Fa - ther loved Thy ev - 'ry deed.
crown of thorns. And for Thy head a crown of thorns.
ter - nal - ly; to sing Thy praise e - ter - nal - ly.